Footnotes:

- ^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- ^{2/} Because April 30 falls on Saturday and July 31 falls on Sunday, these filing deadlines are extended to May 2 and August 1, respectively.
- ^{3/} File this report if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made to state officeholders or committees primarily formed to support or oppose state officeholders during the corresponding period.
- ^{4/} In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically if, beginning January 1, 2000, the committee receives contributions or makes expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

- A supplemental preelection statement may be required if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made in connection with an election held in 2005. In addition, late independent expenditure or late contribution reports are required if independent expenditures or contributions totaling $1,000 or more are made during the 16-day period prior to an election held in 2005. Contact the FPPC for specific requirements.

As of the date of this publication (8/05), the 2005 Addendum to FPPC Campaign Information Manuals C, D, and E contains the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements. Legislative amendments to the Political Reform Act may go into effect that will change information contained in the 2004 Addendum and this filing schedule. Be sure to check the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov) for updated information.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- State candidates and committees that contribute to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Ballot measure committees controlled by state candidates, and some committees that feature a state candidate in an advertisement, are also subject to contribution limits. Contact the FPPC for specific information.
